

PRESS ALERT

To: Sports Editors, Reporters, Radio Sports & Television Personnel.
From: Sports Foundation, Inc.
Date: March 14, 2005
Re: Citywide Tryouts for the 35th Annual "CITY GAME"

What: Citywide Tryouts for Girls to participate in the City Game.

When: Wednesday March 22nd, and 24th, 2005; 5pm-8pm

Where: Hostos Community College, 475 Grand Concourse; Gymnasium {Bronx}

Who: For graduating female high school seniors with 2.0 GPA or 820 SAT or 17 ACT exam scores

Actual City Game Date: Tuesday April 19th, 2005 at John Jay College

The City Game was started by the Sports Foundation in the early 70's as a showcase All-Star Game for the best high school basketball players in the City. It is the oldest post season high school game in New York City. In 1982 the game became a platform for student/athletes to try to get scholarships into colleges/universities.

For further information:

Sports Foundation
(718) 665-9585